STEALTH NEPTUNE BACKPACK

The Swissdigital Neptune is the ultimate travel companion, designed to move seamlessly from the boardroom to the boarding gate. With a huge 46L capacity, TSA-friendly 180° opening, and suspended padded laptop sleeve, it delivers effortless access and total protection for your digital gear, including a 16" MacBook Pro.

Crafted with durable materials and heavy-duty padding, the Neptune is engineered for comfort and endurance. Its smart USB interface with built-in cable, RFID protection pocket, and multi-function organisation pockets keep you connected and secure wherever you go. Travel-ready details like the trolley sleeve, sunglasses pocket, and side pockets for bottles or gear make it as practical as it is professional.

Finished in sleek black with multiple decoration areas, the Neptune offers bold branding potential — a powerful blend of innovation, function, and modern design built for life on the move.
